CONSECRATED STEWARDSHIP

AT HOPE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Sunday, May 6th, is our congregation's Consecration Sunday, the culmination of our emphasis on Christian stewardship called Consecrated Stewards. We invite you to attend our Consecration Sunday services, at 8:00am or 10:30am, and make your financial commitment as an act of worship.

A Celebration Luncheon will follow at 11:45am in the Dufendach Center, where we will announce our commitments to be consecrated stewards of Hope Lutheran Church.

We urge you to join your fellow members for the Consecrated Stewards Bible studies currently being offered on Sunday mornings at 9:15 AM, led by Pastor Mokry.

We also offer a number of Bible studies throughout the week, at 7:00 PM, in the homes of Rich Gruenhagen (April 26th), and Dave Fairfield (May 2nd).

Please check the weekly bulletin, as well as your mailbox, as we provide more information on this exciting program.

Elizabeth Gillman

Liz, as she prefers to be called, moved to Levittown 10 years ago from Philadelphia. She is married and has a 5 year old daughter, who will be attending school at Hope in the fall. Her mother was from Bristol, so she spent a lot of time in her younger years visiting this area. Liz works as an Insurance Agent. She loves the outdoors and recently purchased a camper so they can enjoy camping, fishing, and boating. Liz was an excellent violin player in high school and still plays for her daughter. She looks forward to using her musical gift to bless our congregation.

If you want to get to know Liz, just say hi. Liz says that if anyone says hi to her, she can find something to talk with them about.
So say "hi" to Liz and find out where your conversation leads!

Roger and Rachael Lopez

Roger and Rachael have two children, Layna 5 years old and Miles 3 years old. They attend the 10:30 service. Roger is a Retirement Consultant.

He enjoys reading and craftsmanship in his free time.

Rachael is an Accountant and enjoys cooking and doing crafts.

Roger and Rachael are both interested in helping with special events.

Please invite them to your special events team for fellowship as you prepare for special events.

Louise Smith

Louise attends the 8:00 service. She is retired from working as an Administrative Assistance for a School Photography Company. She lived in Croydon for many years, but has recently sold her home. She stays with family while on a waiting list for an apartment. Louise likes to read, take walks, listen to music and garden.

Louise has a great love for American history. Please introduce yourself and find out about Louise's love of history.

Still in April...

Scrip Orders are due next on Monday, April 23, at 9 a.m.
Gift cards can be purchased for house projects, lawn projects, groceries, gas, trips... almost anything!
