Dear Friends,

I would like to thank all of you who have been caring for me since I was diagnosed with prostate cancer late last summer. Whether you included me in your prayers or asked me how I was doing, knowing that so many of you cared for me has helped me to maintain a positive attitude. My last two PSA tests have resulted in very low numbers (that's good, if you don't know), showing no evidence of cancer at this time. For the foreseeable future, I'll be getting tests done every six months to make sure that I stay healthy. Thank you, one and all. — Tom Jeske

STEWARDSHIP SNIPPET: Ephesians 4:1

"I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you were called."

The callings we have from the Lord are our "vocations."

Here Paul talks about our vocation as Christian. We are called to be His people and to reflect His love, generosity, and peace within the Church.
