

DEVOTIONAL THOUGHTS FROM PASTOR WESLEY: What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’?

Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way not just? Is it not your ways that are not just?

When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall save his life. Because he considered and turned away from all the transgressions that he had committed, he shall surely live; he shall not die.

For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, declares the Lord GOD; so turn, and live.”

– Ezekiel 18:2, 25-28, 32

Any profession that involves regular interaction with young people, whether it’s teaching, coaching, pastoring, or parenting, requires one to learn the ever-changing language of the young. In my own pastoring and teaching, I have seen the evolution of the lingo from “sus” to “larp”.

For the bemused adults among us, the unique expressions of the younger generation can feel confusing, annoying, and, eventually, exhausting.

That’s the feeling I get from God when He says through His prophet Ezekiel: What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge’? A new and exhausting language has been circulating among His people. And if you read closely, this expression is an accusation: The past generations that sinned, but it is us who suffer.

It’s an accusation of injustice. It’s an accusation God will not let stand. God’s response to these annoying words is His just actions. He saves the righteous. He rescues His people. He forgives their sin. He sends His Son.

Not trusting in Jesus is like hurling accusations at God. Because God did send His Son, and with Him salvation. Even to the people that were accusing Him. So when you feel the annoying, exhausting accusations of sin, remember God’s saving actions for you.

Lord, block out the accusations of sin and open our eyes to you. Amen.
