DEVOTIONAL THOUGHTS FROM PASTOR WESLEY: A PSALM OF DAVID.
The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters.

He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

–Psalm 23

When you study Greek & Latin for too long, your sense of humor becomes… unique. There are things that Greek students might find humorous that don't translate well (pun intended) for people not in the know. An example is the Greek word for sheep: πρόβατον (probaton) – "forward-walker". It is a humorous word, if only by the implication of its etymology – an animal that is dumb in every sense of the word: unspeaking, unthinking, an animal that can only walk forward helplessly.

David, the King of Israel, makes himself a sheep in Psalm, 23. It's not the sort of image one would expect from a warrior-king. If anyone in the land of Israel could truly claim to not be helpless, it was David. He defeated Goliath, the champion of Gath. He survived the persecutions of the mad King Saul. He brought the Philistines to submission and made Israel a mighty military power.

But before God, David sets all his power aside. He humbles himself to become like a helpless, dumb sheep. Because David knows where his might comes from, and it doesn't come from himself.

When we humble ourselves to receive the gifts of our Lord, we do not do so to degrade ourselves or to punish ourselves for our sins. To humble ourselves is to acknowledge our own limitations and to receive the real help of our God.

Lord, help us to humble ourselves to be shepherded by You.
