DEVOTIONAL THOUGHTS FROM PASTOR WESLEY: I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church, I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life + of the world to come. Amen

This is part of the Nicene creed, which we confess during church every Sunday before our prayers and before we come forward to the altar for the Lord's Supper.
So… why? Why do we devote a few minutes to say this "Creed" together every Sunday?

Everything we do in church helps us to remember what God says; specifically, in this part of the Nicene Creed, we remember what God says about who we are. We are those whom God has called together into His holy Church. The holy Church is the body of those baptized for the forgiveness of their sins. The body that has been baptized for the forgiveness of sins is the body that will be raised from the dead to the life of the world to come. The life of the world to come is the life of the saints in Revelation 7:15:

They are before the throne of God,

And serve him day and night in his temple;

And he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence.

When we gather together to hear God's Word and to receive God's gifts, we are one Church – past, present, and future. The Word of life that God gives is the same Word that the saints of the past heard, and it is the Word that they, and we, still hear today. God's Word never ceases to give life. God's Word gives life while we proclaim it here on earth; His Word gives life when our bodies die and decay; His Word gives life as saints return to the arms of their Father in heaven, and His Word will give life to our bodies raised for us on the last day.

Therefore, when we gather to receive the gifts of God together, with the angels and the archangels and all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify God's Glorious name, evermore praising Him and saying:

Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty,

who was and is and is to come! Amen.
